The Aga Khan University endeavours to provide a clean and safe living environment for outstation students who take up accommodation in the hostels, on-campus, and off-campus, managed by the University. The hostels managed by the University comprises of single and shared accommodation with bathrooms.

The expectation is that hostellites will treat these facilities with respect and honesty, and portray behaviour which is commensurate with the objectives of the Aga Khan University.

ROOM NO. 3

AKU

Accommodation in Pakistan

The hostel facilities encompass various amenities to enhance the overall living experience for students. Air-conditioning is available in both on-campus and AKU-owned off-campus hostels, with separate charges determined by the Finance Department for the latter. Common rooms in all hostels offer air-conditioned spaces, along with television and cable connections. Laundry and ironing facilities are provided in all hostels free of charge, requiring hostellites to use their own detergent.

For dining options, arrangements are in place for students to purchase hot meals within the hostel premises. Cafeterias around the campus offer additional choices, with details provided upon students' hostel arrival. Vending machines in the hostels allow for snack purchases. Off-campus hostellers can benefit from a scheduled transport routine facilitating on-campus meals.

Each hostel is equipped with kitchenettes, allowing students to prepare their own meals with amenities such as a refrigerator, microwave oven, toaster, and burners. High-speed Wi-Fi internet is available free of charge.
